

Pato Banton, Universal Love

In a world of so much hate, crime and injustice what we need right now is some universal love.
Unconditional love ya.

There's a vibe in the air
I can feel it everywhere. Universal love!
If you want it you can have it just reach out and grab it now. Universal love!
It's a gift from above fits me like a glove. Universal love!

Take a look around you tell me now what do you see?
Do you see peace and harmony or do you see war and misery?
It's time for us to realize it's time for a change, right now.
Time for us to put our heads together now and rearrange.

Come on, come on, come on!
Universal love! I want it.
Universal love! Got to have it now.
Universal love! Yes I want it.
Universal love!

Word!
It's extraordinary when you check it out love is one of the most used words without a doubt.
Singers use it constantly because a love song
can make lots of money.
So many people find it appealing
but do they really know the true meaning of love?
The real thing not no imitation not lust or infatuation.
Let's forget about the love in the T. V.
the kiss me baby, squeeze me, please don't leave me.
True love is a heavenly gift
and it never gets possessive or selfish.
The more you love is the more you care
the more you care is the more you share.
With your mother, your father, your sister and your brother and every member of the human race.
