

Pato Banton, Wishing On A Star

Most men sometimes
wish to drive an expensive car.
Most men sometimes
think of traveling and going far.
But I&#039;m here all alone wishing on a star
one day very soon I can be just where you are.

It&#039;s been far too long now that I&#039;ve been away from you.
I&#039;m missing your loving and hope that you feel the same way too.
But I&#039;m many miles away praying for the day
to hold you in my arms and be close to you again.

You&#039;re always in my thoughts
and always in my dreams.
Patience is a virtue
but I wait for you impatiently.
You see I&#039;ve got this longing feel
I know this love is real girl.
I&#039;ll show you wait and see
I just hope that you love me.

Yes I&#039;m wishing on a star
to be just where you are.
