

Patrick Nuo, Amazing

The first sun is slowly killin' the night
I hear you breath constantly by my side
I gotta leave
Silently I wash out my office coffee cup
And I wish I could ignore the hands of the cloo
I gotta leave you're still half asleep
I keep on watchin' your face
Try to remember your dream for me
And by the way
Everyday you're so damn amazing
A little bit of angel half dream away
You're like gravity you're holdin' me
So how am I supposed to leave
When you're so damn amazing
Amazing
I can't untie though I know it's just for a while
So I turn around to catch one last sleepy smile
I gotta leave you're still half asleep
I can't stop watchin' your face
Try to remember your dream for me
And by the way
