

Patrick Nuo, Too Late (To Save It With A Lovesong)

Girl your cover's blown
I'm telling you, we're past that by now
Accusing me is so wrong
You'd better listen and stop now

After I'm done,
You'll need some time
Two will be one
That's right
You get it now

Chorus

I feel we're never gonna make it
Too late to save it with a love song
That's right our love is overrated
Too late to save it with a love song now
To save it with a love song now

Why apologize?
Can't you see your bridges have burned?
By now you sure ought to know
That nothing you say will make it right

After I'm done, you'll need some time
Two will be one
That's right
You get it now

Chorus (2x)

I feel we're never gonna make it
Too late to save it with a love song
That's right our love is overrated
Too late to save it with a love song
I feel it's time for us to break it
Too late to save it with a love song
That's right we're never gonna make it
Too late to save it with a love song now
To save it with a love song now

Our love is so exaggerated
I could hardly feel it when it faded
You washed away what once was true.
Love

Chorus (2x)
