

Patrick Wolf, A Boy Like Me

A boy like me is told he is both nine and ninety and A boy like me should shut those books join the army but a boy like me would never be seen fighting for peace i want total chaos and a holiday home in the east A boy like me should know much better than to raise his flag in stormy weather but i just cant get enough electric shocks i want to buy a lighthouse and ride a giraffe on the rocks hey i dont give up i want two dogs two cats a big kitchen and a welcome mat i want all this and all shall have
i dont give up
A boy like me dont ever give up his dream
no
