

Patrick Wolf, Accident And Emergency

So come on
Give me the worst and then again
I'm feeling braver than I've ever been
From the skull down to the feet
All out for blood and sweat and meat
And for

Accident and emergency
To terrorists, catastrophe
Drop this agony, and misery
Give me accident and emergency

So what happens when you lose everything
You just carry on, and with a grin
Sing, for all that your life has to bring
And just get yourself back into the ring
Knock us out

For accident and emergency
To terrorists, catastrophe
Drop this agony, and misery
Hold on for accident and emergency

'Cause if you never lose
How you gonna know when you won
And if it's never dark
How you gonna know the sun
When it shines
You've got to let it shine

Bringing out the best in me
