

Patsy Cline, Don't Ever Leave Me

Wake up every morning, heart's full of pain
I looked out the window, and it's pouring down the rain
And I cry, Baby, oh, baby
Don't ever leave me again.

I miss your lovin', your kisses too
Ain't nothin' on earth I wouldn't do for you
And I cry, Baby, oh, baby
Don't ever leave me again.

When rain starts fallin'
And I start callin'
Oh baby, how I love you
My heart is cryin', I feel like dyin'.

I want your lovin' baby, your kisses too
Ain't nothing on earth I wouldn't do for you
And I cry, Baby, oh, baby
Don't ever leave me again.
Don't ever leave me again.

When rain starts fallin'
And I start callin'
Oh baby, how I love you
My heart is cryin', I feel like dyin'.

I want your lovin', your kisses too
Ain't nothing on earth I wouldn't do for you
And I cry, Baby, oh, baby
Don't ever leave me again, no.
Don't ever leave me again...
