

Patti LaBelle, Isn't It A Shame

How is it
That two people
Who laugh together
Love together
Sometime in up far apart

Tell me how is it

And how is it that
Two people
who cry together
grown and die together
Some times end up with a broken heart

Isn't it a shame
My friend
Sometime such a love as this must end
Isn't it a shame
You have to laugh before you cry

And how is it that
Two people
who cling together
grown and dream together they end up all alone

Tell me how is it

And how is it that
Two people
who plan together
make a little life together Sometimes end up out on their own

Isn't it a shame
My friend
Sometime such a love as this must end
Isn't it a shame
You have to laugh before you cry

Isn't a shame that such a love must end

VAMP

You have to laugh before you cry

Isn't a shame that such a love must end

And how is it that
Two people
who live together
dream, dream together
End up all alone

And how is it that
Two people
who cling together
dream, dream together
End up all alone

Isn't it a shame
Sometime such a love as this must end
Isn't it a shame
You have to laugh before you cry

Isn't a shame that such a love must end

Isn't it a shame

Sometime such a love as this must end

Isn't it a shame

You have to laugh before you cry
