

Patti Page, I Cried

It was winter when you told me you were leavin'
I cried, I cried, I cried "Please, don't go"
Came the springtime with its love song so deceivin'
I cried, oh, how I cried, no one will know

Then the summer came and went with no word at all
I knew that it was over as the leaves began to fall

Wintertime, summertime, spring and fall, it's true
I'll always be cryin' over you

I cried, I cried, I cried "Please, don't go"

Yes, I cried, oh, how I cried, no one will know

Then the summer came and went with no word at all
I knew that it was over as the leaves began to fall

It was winter when you told me you were leavin'
I cried, I cried, I cried "Please, don't go"
Came the springtime with its love song so deceivin'
I cried, oh, how I cried, no one will know

Then the summer came and went with no word at all
I knew that it was over as the leaves began to fall

Wintertime, summertime, spring and fall, it's true
I'll always be crying over you, sweetheart
I'll always be crying over you