

Patti Scialfa, Romeo

Standing at your doorstep darlin' what can I do you're a part of me forever like a troublesome tattoo I lay awake at night curse your name into the dark while the memory of you rings like a church bell through my heart then a cold rain starts to fall

Oh Romeo
remember how we'd listen to the radio when the girls sang
'baby baby you know it's true ain't no one in this world for me but you'

Now I'm a believer darlin' I believe in heaven above and when I look in your eyes I believe I still see love well maybe I will never know just why you walked away did you think I wasn't good enough or were you just afraid of the cold rain that's fallen all around us now

Oh Romeo'

Now I'm living here in Chelsea In somebody else's arms got a ring around my finger diamond snake around my arm don't know if he knows about you darlin'
I don't even care sometimes he pretend to reach for me and I pretend I'm there while that cold rain has fallen all around us now listen

Oh Romeo
well there is no one
