

Patty Loveless, You Can Feel Bad If It Makes You

mmhhmm..
mmhhmm..

The car is runnin and your bags are packed
I guess that says it all
Your head is hangin and you look real sad
Maybe you should've called
You say you think you need a brand new start
You're really sorry that you broke my heart
Well im not really fallin apart

(Chorus)
Baby, you can feel bad if it makes you feel better
Picture me crin readin all ya love letters
Walkin around in your old sweaters, baby
You can feel bad if it make you feel better

mmhhmm..

Maybe I'll go out tonight, yeah I'll paint the town
Maybe I'll run into you, while I'm runnin around
There's a good chance I'll be alone
And even better one that you won't
And when its time for me to go home baby

(Chorus)
You can feel bad if it makes you feel better
Picture me crin readin all ya love letter
Walkin around in your old sweaters baby
You can feel bad if it makes you feel better

If it make you feel.....sumthin

Yeah, take another look at these tears I'm crin
They're not fallin on your shoulders, they're fallin on mine
Yeah I've seen this comin for a long long time
Now I'll be just fine

(Chorus)
You can feel bad if it makes you feel better
Picture me crin readin all ya love letters
Walkin around in your old sweaters baby
You can feel bad if it makes you feel better

(Chorus)
You can feel bad if it make you feel better
Picture me crin readin all ya love letters
Walkin around in your old sweaters baby
You can feel bad if it makes you feel....better

If it makes you feel...sumthin
If it makes you feel.....better
