

Patty Smyth, Shine

Why'd you tell me that you won't see me no more
I say baby, baby, baby do you wanna watch me crawl across the floor

Cause anyone can learn to pull a trigger
Anyone can break a heart in two
It's so easy for you
But if there's love in your heart
Just let it
Shine, shine, shine
Shine, shine, shine
Shine, shine, shine
All over me

One day you'll turn around
When all your friends are gone, ooh
You'll be sorry boy but sorry won't keep you warm

So darling hold me now my heart is hungry
All I need is a taste of you
Let love pull us through
And like a light in the dark
Just let it
Shine, shine, shine
Shine, shine, shine,
Shine, shine, shine

And all of your days baby
All of your nights
I'll make you shimmer with love
A brilliant sacrifice
Ain't nobody out there gonna love you this way
So come build me a fire
Do you hear what I say

Just let it
Shine, shine, shine
I wanna feel it
Shine, shine, shine
I wanna see it
Shine, shine, shine

I wanna feel your love for me
I wanna touch your love for me
I wanna see your love for me

All of your days baby
All of your nights
I'll make you shimmer with love
A brilliant sacrifice

Anyone can learn to pull the trigger
Anyone can break a heart in two
You know it's just too easy for you
