

Paul Alan, Vita E Bella (Have 13 Years)

I'm feeling wonderful when I think about happiness
I want to have 13 years, 13 years
Vita e bella, vita e bella vita e bella
I feel like I've had 13 years
Look what I 'd like to
I would like to beautify and improve this world
Make that all will be happy
I would like to give lots of from self – taste your soul
And still be teenager I can't have a good look for it, what's around me
No no no stop me

Vita e bella vita e bella
Do you know about it?
I am 13, and you're also 13 years
Vita e bella vita e bella
Let it doesn't change
Feel the taste of freedom
Every have 13 years

When you wake up you feel still tired
Enough just that you smile
You forget about yesterday's day but
Don't think about next
Think about it, what's you can give the world
You aren't worse from other
You have the right do it, what you want

Vita e bella vita e bella do you know about it?...
Vita e bella

Life have a different colorful
You're falling and you're flying
Sometimes you're afraid to take a chance
Although, that sometimes is hopeless
You feel the discouragement
Then you think, that you're young and make it sure
