Paul Anka, Hello, Young Lovers

When I think of Tom I think about a night When the earth smelled of summer And the sky was streaked with white And the soft mist of England was sleeping on a hill

I remember this And I always will There are new lovers now on the same silent hill Looking on the same blue sea And I know Tom and I are a part of them all And they're all a part of Tom and me

Hello Young lovers whoever you are I hope your troubles are few All my good wishes go with you tonight I've been in love like you

Be brave, young lovers, and follow your star Be brave and faithful and true Cling very close to each other tonight I've been in love like you

I know how it feels to have wings on your heels And to fly down a street in a trance You fly down a street on a chance that you'll meet And you meet not realy by chance

Don't cry young lovers whatever you do Don't cry because I'm alone All of my mem'ries happy tonight I've had a love of my own I've had a love of my own like yours I've had a love of my own
