Paul Banks, Young Again

Time is disgraceful, We?re all just watching these days fall apart, And silence seems wasteful When I know what?s coming for me in the dark.

?Cause I am young, again Thanks a lot. I?ll be young again, Round round. I am young again, Thanks a lot. I am young again, Round round.

Jobs are disgraceful, Think that they?re suffering from a clark. I size my intention, It just seem small in the wrong rights.

?Cause I am young, again Thanks a lot. I feel young again, Round round. I am young again, I am young again, I feel young again, Round round. Thanks for my spot. Thanks for my spot.

I am young again, I am young again, I feel young again, Round round. Thanks for my spot
