

Paul Gilbert, Universal

Everybody knows it's Universal
Everybody knows it's plain to see
Everybody here can understand it
It's not a book you gotta read
It don't take too much rehearsal
So come and sing along with me
I said

Na,na,na...

Everybody knows it's Universal
Everybody knows that they're the best
From accounting down to promotion
They never seem to take a rest
They treat me well when I go solo
And just as good with Racer X
I said
Na,na,na
