

Paul Kantner, Fishman

Lyrics & Music: Grace Slick

Afternoon slides in sideways
It's going down summer smooth

The man - and the water
They move me ah yes they move me
From standing too long

They both dance man & water
They both dance together
They both dance over me
They both dance lying down

Like I was making love to a flying fishman
Swim over my body with the sea in his hands
I'll have him again on Andromeda's sand

He's the son of Calaban
He's the son of Calaban
Fishman rules the ocean hand

I love you Fishman I love you
