

Paul McCartney, Who Cares (Feat. Emma Stone)

Did you ever get hurt by the words people say
And the things that they do when they're picking on you?
Did you ever get sad by the games that they play
When they're making you feel like a rusty old wheel?

it's been left in the rain
who cares what the idiots say who cares what the idiots do
who cares about the pain in your heart?
who cares about you?
I do

cause you're worth much more of that you can be sure no need to hide
the love you've got inside

did you ever get lost in the heart of crowd and the people around keep on pushing you down is it driving you mad
and you're screaming out loud and you're wondering who's going to recognize you?

you're a ghost in the dark
who cares what the idiots say
who care what the idiots do
who cares about the pain in your heart?
who cares about you?

who cares what the idiots say
who care what the idiots do
who cares about the pain in your heart?
who cares about you?
I do!
