Paul Simon, Darling Lorraine

The first time I saw her I couldn't be sure But the sin of impatience Said, "she's just what you're looking for"

So I walked right up to her And with the part or me that talks I introduced myself as Frank From New York New York

She's so hot She's so cool I'm not I'm just a fool in love with darling Lorraine

All my life I've been a wanderer Not really, I mostly lived near my parents' home Anyway Lorraine and I got married And the usual marriage stuff Then one day she says to me

From out of the blue Frank, I've had enough Romance is a heartbreaker I'm not meant to be a homemaker And I'm tired of being darling Lorraine

What - you don't love me anymore? What - you're walking out the door? What - you don't like the way I chew? Hey let me tell you

You're not the woman that I wed You say you're depressed but you're not You just like to stay in bed I don't need you darling Lorraine

Darling Lorraine Lorraine I long for your love

Financially speaking
I guess I'm a washout
Everybody's buy and sell
And sell and buy and
And that's what the whole thing's all about
If it had not been for Lorraine
I'd have left here long ago
I should have been a musician
I love the piano
She's so light
She's so free
I'm tight, well, that's me
But I feel so good
With darling Lorraine

On Christmas morning frank awakes To find Lorraine has made a stack of pancakes They watch the television, husband and wife All afternoon "it's a wonderful life

What - you don't love me anymore? What - you're walking out the door? What - you don't like the way I chew? Hey let me tell you You're not the woman that I wed Gimme my robe I'm going back to bed I'm sick to death of you Lorraine

Darling Lorraine
Lorraine
Her hands like wood
The doctor was smiling
But the news wasn't good
Darling Lorraine
Please don't leave me yet
I know you're in pain
Pain you can't forget
Your breathing is like an echo of our love
Maybe I'll go down to the corner store
And buy us something sweet
Here's an extra blanket honey
To wrap around your feet

All the trees were washed with April rain And the moon in the meadow Took darling Lorraine
