

Paul van Dyk feat Vega, Time of our lives

There's a time for us to let go there's a time for holding on a time to speak, a time to listen there's a time for us to go there's a time for laying low-down there's a time for getting high a time for peace, a time for fighting a time to live a time to die a time to scream, a time for silence
a time for truth, against the lies a time for faith, a time for science there's a time for us to shine there is a time for explaining there's a time to understand a time for hurt, a time for healing time to run to make a stand oh, this is the time of our lives
