

Paul Van Dyk, Kaleidoscope

In the kaleidoscope of chaos

The headline reads:

"We're going to extremes"

And people are left with no dreams

No dreams

There's nothing but a memory

Are we a reflection, of life?

(It's a) long long way from here to there

Kaleidoscope of chaos

Are we a reflection, of life?

(It's a) long long way from here to there

(Are we a reflection), of life?

(It's a long long way from here to there) Kaleidoscope of chaos

(Are we a reflection), of life?

(It's a) long long way from here to there

In the kaleidoscope of madness

It's not what it seems

Life holds the answers

People can find their dreams

Their dreams

Are we a reflection, of life?

(It's a) long long way from here to there

Kaleidoscope of chaos

Are we a reflection, of life

(It's a) long long way from here to there

Are we a reflection, of life?

(It's a) long long way from here to there

Kaleidoscope of chaos
