

Paul Weller, It's Written In The Stars

it's written in the wind
that we're two
carved out in the sand
that we're real
it's lit up in the stars
that we're true
we're destined in the sky
to be glad
we're hopelessly informed that we're meant
we're conscious of the fact that we're supposed to be so sure
and we are
we're driven by the
rain to act
we're suspect to the laws passed for real
when we're the realest
thing we've seen
taken by the hand from above I really do feel
we work for love
and it's written in the stars
meant for us
soaked into the sand
made by time
taken by the hand from above
I really do feel
that we work for love
it's written in the wind
that we're two
that we're real
that we're true
to be glad
