

Paul Young, Everthing must change

I was never one to back out of an argument
And say I was wrong
Even when I'd seen the other side
I'd hide my foolishness and carry on
But still I'd be embarrassed
Cos they'd see what happened and they'd play along
Until I'd back myself into a corner
I would only realize when they had gone
And like a dream, a life, a reason
Everything must change
And like a world, this earth and seasons
Everything must change
In the same way when we disagree
I wouldn't be the one to back down
Still I'd know that you had faith in me
Tell me something am I letting you down?
Cos when I woke up and I saw the note
You pressed into the mirror frame
But it was easy to be angry at you, but
Deep inside, I know we share the blame
And like a dream, a life, a reason
Everything must change
And like a world, this earth and seasons
Everything must change
I'm going back to the top, to start myself off
But first of all some things I need to know
When I'm scared of being wrong again
Won't you be the one I turn to, to let me know
Please, let me be right for once
Cos right now, all I feel, I do is wrong
And it's never too late to learn about love
And this victim needs your hand to hold on
And like a dream, a life, a reason
Everything must change
And like a world, this earth and seasons
Everything must change
