

Paulson, Under Crowns

I hear you went away
You had to leave this state
It seems your past was catching up to you in this place
I've been alone in hearing you
That's when the call comes through

You don't want me
You're just lonely
And I let you inside
You don't want me
You're just lonely
And I don't care tonight

I'm listed day to day
I lost my sense of taste
And I can't seem to get my head on straight
And I know we all make mistakes
Mine cause too much pain

You don't want me
You're just lonely
And I let you inside
You don't want me
You're just lonely
And I don't care tonight

Inside those ladle eyes
There is something you can't seem to replace
And I'm abliged to help you get your fix
Inside
I'm wishing it was more than this

You don't want me . . .
You're just lonely . . .

You don't want me
You're just lonely
And I let you inside
There's no one I would rather take apart
