

Pea Sized, At Least

Some give you water,
some give you wine.
The ones you love might say goodbye.
Nothing's forever and I don't know why.
At least we can cry the whole night long.

Babies are born and old people die.
Time is a secret the truth is a lie.
Words have no meaning,
they can change the world.
God is dead and I am his girl.
At least we can cry the whole night long.
At least we can cry the whole night long.

A piece of this,
a piece of that.
I'd rather take it all.
In the end empty hands are full.
To like or to disgust.
It's all the same.
It's all the same.

Good and bad.
What does that mean?
Don't get me wrong.
I'm here to stay.
Please stop weeping.
I won't fly away.

At least we can cry the whole night long.
