

Pedro The Lion, Helicopter

I want to fly this helicopter would it be enough me and my wings are very fragile is that what you want?

and i'm so scared that i might crash this bird I feel like such a little girl this time there is no net to catch me when i fall jesus please protect me now

I do the thing that i don't want to I'm so very tired my thoughts have wings and they don't obey me what's it going to do

and i'm so scared that i might crash this bird I feel like such a little jerk this time there is no net to catch me when i jump jesus please forgive me now please have this burden

please have this burden...
