

Pencey Prep, Attention Reader

I'm nothing
I'm nothing
Caught here, and now I'm gone
So many days fly by
You haunt me, the times I shut my eyes
Choke softly, from the poetry
It doesn't sound as true when you still were here

[Screaming/Chorus]

Scent
I never thought you would've thrown something back
Ripping apart my heart
I see you more at night

Won't look back
Wretched night

[Monologue]

I pray for a piece of mind
I beg for a brand new life
I plead for a second chance
And the ability, to shut my eyes at night

Angels die and memories fade
I wait to see the day that you break

[Screaming/Chorus]

I never thought you would've thrown something back
Ripping apart my heart
I see you most at night

My heart fades
My heart fades

A true friend stabs you in front
A true friend stabs you in front
A true friend stabs you in front
A true friend stabs you in front
Go!

[Monologue]

I pray for a piece of mind
I beg for a brand new life
I plead for a second chance
And strength-
To burn this motherfucker down!
