

Pennywise, One Reason

You take the best away from me
Then give it all away
You can't control yourself for anyone
Don't think that you could ever see
That things are not the same
You can't control yourself
For anything

Give me One Reason to stop your fall (Yeah yeah yeah)
Give me One Reason to answer your call (Yeah yeah yeah)
Give me one reason why I should care at all

Don't think that you could understand
Your logic rips away
The mask that you put on for everyone
You feel it slipping from your hands
Still you manipulate
You can't control yourself
For Anything

Give me one reason to stop your fall (Yeah yeah yeah)
Give me one reason to answer your call (Yeah yeah yeah)
Give me one reason why I should care at all

Let someone look inside
At what's behind the mask where you hide
A mixture of pain and pride
The real you that's been denied

Won't you give me one reason?
Won't you give me one reason?
Won't you give me one reason?

Give me one reason to stop your fall (Yeah yeah yeah)
Give me one reason to answer your call (Yeah yeah yeah)
Give me one reason why I should care at all
