

Pentagram, Voice

are we gonna ask the questions that scare me are we gonna break the bonds of silence will i find the truth in my reflection will i see the meaning of my defiant cuz there are words that must be said and there are words that must be heard and that they're not as really quite absurd and there's a footstep in the clouds and there is warmth in drops of rain and there's a meaning to the words i say i need a voice now come be my voice now find me a voice now . yeah

give me the choice now
