

Pepper, Tongues

[verse:]

Chop up your heart with my truthfull tongue. Don't touch me girl until the song is done, and when I leave you'll hear the song I've sung that is the way I'll have my fun....Sleepin creepin evidence you leavin wish you were here so I could sleep just shy of a lie. Open up the window sill find a cold peice anything that I ever loved...only thing I ever loved...

[chorus:]

Does she know my name? Doesn't mean a thing, and if my luck don't change I'll probly be the last one standing.....standing here...probly be the last one standing here.

[VERSE]

[chorus 2:]

Does she know my name? Doesn't mean a thing, and if my luck don't change I'll probly be the last one standing. Climb through my window please, get on my bed and freeze and if my mind don't I'll probly be the last one standing here...Lord, standing here....only thing I ever loved... only thing I ever loved...only thing I ever loved...only thing I ever loved was [bridge:]

You (sleepin creopen evidence your leavin) you are the last one....
