

Perry Blake, California

A new life is what we need
A new life is out of here
Little moments, don't you know?
Maybe go to California, where it's warm
Get some work, I can see
You and I breaking waves
In the sunshine

Don't start slipping away
Don't start slipping away

No sad refrains
They belong to yesterday

Don't start slipping away
Don't start slipping away

California, California
