

Perry Blake, Travelling

It's been so long since i've seen your face
Since i've seen the one that i loved
There are no songs that tell it as it is Tell it as it is as it was

Because i've been trying for what seems like a lifetime
I've been rolling through the years alone
And i've been travelling so long im getting tired
I've been travelling too long my love

It would be so good holding you again
Holding you again for a while
There are no words to tell it as it was
Tell it as it was for a time

And when your beauty starts to fade in time
And only artifice remains untouched
You'll be listening to bob getting high
You'll be listening to songs of love

It's alright it's alright it's alright it's alright

I've been trying for what seems like a lifetime
I've been rolling through the years alone
And i've been travelling so long i'm getting tired
I've been travelling too long my love

It's only moments ain't that what you said
Well, ain't that what you said my love
