

Perry Como, When I Wanted You

Tho' we've gone our separate ways there could only be brighter days I didn't mean that much to you Sweated out to lose the fight you can make it turn out right
'cause you've got the heart to be secure . . .

When I wanted you and needed you and I still can't bring myself to say "hello" to you
When I gave you time to make up your mind
you turned your back on me and now I'm turnin' mine on you . . .

After all that we've been through leaving you is so hard to do when I close my eyes, I don't feel the pain What was wrong and who was right in the end you'll see the light
'cause you think a lot and you'll find you're wrong . . .

When I wanted you and needed you

and I still can't bring myself to say "hello" to you
When I gave you time to make up your mind
you turned your back on me
and now I'm turnin' mine on you . . .

< instrumental break >

When I wanted you and needed you
and I still can't bring myself to say "hello" to you
When I gave you time to make up your mind
you turned your back on me
and now I'm turnin' mine on you . . .

When I wanted you and needed you still can't bring myself to say "hello" to you
When I gave you time to make up your mind
you turned your back on me
and now I'm turnin' mine on you . . .

Words and Music by Gino Cunico