

Perry Como, Where You're Concerned

Can't sleep at night without dreams of you,
And now you fill my daydreams too!

Where you're concerned,
when did this feeling start to grow in me,
where you're concerned?
Why did it take so long for me to see?
I can't pretend I'm just a friend,
where you're concerned?

If love is just a game, then I can't play,
where you're concerned!
I never thought I'd feel this way, but now,
I want to live, just to give,
where you're concerned!

Can't sleep at night without dreams of you,
and now you fill my daydreams too!

Where you're concerned,
If love is just a game, then I can't play,
where you're concerned!
I never thought I'd feel this way, but now,
I want to live, just to give,
where you're concerned!
