

Pet Shop Boys, Boy Strange

See Boy Strange on the horizon of love He's calling to you
What do you say?

See Boy Strange as an example of youth so close to the truth
but still far away

And he's such a strange boy will he make a good exchange for the one before a closed door
that you left behind?

When you realise that this boy is strange it's too late to change your point of view

He's often there when the sun meets the sky with a perfect alibity unlike you

And he's such a strange boy
D'you think he'll make a good exchange for
the one before a closed door
that you left behind?

To talk of common sense is a complete waste of time
His looks are a crime bound to commit

In the eyes of the world he's a borderline fool both naïve and cruel Why would you inflict him on you?
