Pet Shop Boys, I Want To Stay Here

At this time of night, when the crowds have passed We're the last to leave, we need some company No need to look so shy, don't even wonder why You know the reason that we need this company I've been sitting here, looking out for you Someone just like me, who's maybe had a drink or two I don't want another drink or fight I want a lover I don't care whether it's wrong or right I want a lover tonight Tonight Outside the dawn is breaking, looks like it's started raining We'll catch a cab, and soon be driving home No need to look so shy, don't even wonder why You'll know the reason just as soon as we get home You've been sitting there, wondering what to do I've been sitting here, waiting to make the first move I don't want another drink or fight I want a lover I don't care whether it's wrong or right I want a lover tonight (Tonight) I don't want another drink or fight I want a lover I don't care whether it's wrong or right I want a lover tonight Toniaht This anticipation is a stimulation No need for conversation as we're driving home Put your arms around me, it doesn't mean you love me Just that you want me and you need my company Driving through the night, it's so exciting Turning off the light without another thought tonight Ahaha I don't want another drink or fight I want a lover I don't care whether it's wrong or right I want a lover tonight (I want a lover tonight) I don't want another drink or fight I want a lover I don't care whether it's wrong or right I want a lover tonight Tonight (I want you, I want your love) (I want you, I want your love) (I want you, I want your love)

Òooh
