

Pete Townshend, Driftin' Blues

I'm drifting and drifting, like a ship out on the sea
I'm drifting and drifting, like a ship out on the sea
Nobody seems to want me, except the wide open sea

My ship ain't got no captain, my ship ain't got no crew
My ship ain't got no captain, my ship ain't got no crew

Doin' that tide dare blow me, thier my passing few to do

I look around for a savior, who saves me from the hungry sea
I look around for a savior, who saves me from the hungry sea
Maybe he's down at the bottom, waiting patiently for me
