

Pete Townshend, Give It Up

I need a drink; I want to drown;
Don't wanna think; don't want a sound;
But I hear a voice shouting so loud
Give It Up

I got a wife; I gotta chose;
Stay out at night, what can I lose?
Only one thing I gotta do,
Give It Up

Early in the morning, night after night;
I look at your picture, and I don't know why
Like an air distant memory, I can't forget,
and it's coming back down on me; I'm living in bed.

Oh no, not me,
though you didn't really want me at all

I need a drink; I want to drown;
Don't wanna think; don't want a sound;
But I hear a voice shouting so loud
Give It Up

Early in the morning, night after night;
I look at your picture, and I don't know why
Like an air distant memory, I can't forget,
and it's coming back down on me; I'm living in bed.
