

Peter And The Test Tube Babies, Giving Up Drink

So you are giving up drinking, you've given up fun.
You're staying at home now, and getting things done.
So you've given up drinking, well that's up to you.
You know too much thinking it ain't good for you.

You've just quit smoking, and you say no to drugs.
Now you've finished with joking, 'cos you've fallen in love.

Well I'm not giving up drinking, Im not giving up fun.
I'm going out now, I'm gonna take lots of drugs.
