

Peter And The Test Tube Babies, Weekend Warrior

He's coming down he's on his way.
Don't you try to hide now you can't escape.
He's at the front door he's in your bed later.
Now he's got his head in the refridgerator.
Back in the city he's alright 'cos he's a weekend warrior ..
And it's Friday night.

Yes here he comes he's out of his head.
He's gonna form a gang he's gonna punch some heads.

[Chorus]
He's a weekend warrior

He's gonna grab some girl he's gonna bring her down.
He's gonna let you know that he's in town.
