

Peter Andre, All Cried Out

You, said I'll give you so much loving at the stars
Now I'm left wondering where they are
You said you'd never be the one to give up on us
When you said you wouldn't be a part of me
You're racing on our history
Oh now where is love

I never thought I'd get over you
But I'm stronger, now (yes I am)

Chorus

Can't you see I'm all cried out
Not a word left to say now
No turning back
Can't you see I'm all cried out
I stand alone, no there's no doubt
I'm all cried out

You, said your world would only be complete
By loving every part of me
So I wonder why
Watching a stranger unfold, somehow
And so all that's grown is left unknown
You know that I, I wanna know where, how and why

All the answers left unsaid
Guess it's over now

Chorus

There's no looking back (no)
I can't go
Coz it always seems to come back to good-bye
If only you could let go, your love around
I'd give it all, my baby, no I'd never let you go

Chorus

All cried out, all cried out, all cried out, all cried out
