

Peter Andre, Jordan's Song

there's a land where people danced happy and free but then jordan came along and made them all flee now they'll never dance again and there crying out in pain we must bury her alive in the sand

she's no right to survive
we must help her fall and die
we must all lend a hand
we must wipe her from this land for the world cannot wait there's no time to hesitate
we must bury her alive in the sand

there's a land where the whale's sang peacefully to the rhythm of the ocean and in nature's harmony but then she came along and put them of their song now they'll never sing again 'till she's gone

we must help her fall and die
we must all lend a hand
for the world cannot wait

now we must go but we hope you liked our show it's about katie price she isn't very nice she's better know as jordan now we'll go run her over in our van
