

Peter Evrard, Judge Myself

Look what I got Heaven and hell united
In a plot
You fill me up
With love and anger baby
It's got to stop
What the fuck am I here for
If you don't take me as I am
What the fuck am I here for
If you don't take me as I am

Two hearts collide
Trying to find eachother
It's a fuzz
You want me to
Alter my ego baby
It's no use
What the fuck am I here for
If you don't take me as I am
What the fuck am I here for
If you don't take me as I am

Who Am I To judge myself
When I don't see me in the mirror
Who Am I To judge myself
When my mind keeps going into error keeps going into error

Won't judge myself...
