Peter Frampton, If You Say Goodbye

The night you left you didn't shed a tear
I heard the words I thought I'd never hear
I know my love will never be the same
I'll be forever calling out your name
Darkness all around if you say goodbye
Rain keeps falling down if you say goodbye

All I wanted was another chance
All you gave me was a parting glance
Thought we had so mutch but now I see
Out of the blue you say you're leaving me
Darkness all around if you say goodbye
Rain keeps falling down if you say goodbye

Haunted by the things we left unsaid
If we had another day
Kind of hard for me to understand
Does it have to end this way?
Darkness all around if you say goodbye
Rain keeps falling down if you say goodbye
If you say goodbye
