

Petra, I Am Available

Words and music by Bob Hartman

Based on Matthews 9:37-38, Romans 12:1

I don't have much to offer you, I don't have much to give There's so much I may never be as long as I may live
I may never be all I want to be although I'll always try
But if you choose me, to use me, there's just one reason why

(Chorus)

I am available, I am available

I will go when you say go

I am available, I am available

I will stop when you say no

My whole life was incomplete till I laid it at Your feet

So use me as You will

I am available

I'm not the most dependable - sometimes you can't rely
There's no excuse, there's no defense, there's only one reply

I know that my ability is not Your main concern
It's my availability and willingness to learn
