

Phantom/Ghost, Perfect Lovers

we are perfect lovers
besides the fact that we're not there we are two alien bodies stretched into the stratosphere we are, and I'm not kidding a drawing in the air
accidentally we're not longer there and I think it is all right that we're only seen by night in this perfect black and blue you kiss me, I kiss you too
