

Phantom Planet, Hollywood Is Waiting To Explode

I cast you as the starring role
And Hollywood is taking it's toll on me
You could get swallowed up and lost forever
so you keep a large supply of your headshots around yeah

Sunset Boulevard will lay with you
So now California sun will light it
And in the night that little spark will find it's way inside the bar
Hollywood is waiting
Yes is waiting to explode

These days you could get married to a millionaire, or better yet
Become one for yourself on that worth tv
If it's true love well it won't affect the ratings
Microsoft and your favorite station merge in one big company

Sunset Boulevard will lay with you so
Now California sun will light it
And in the night that little spark will find it's way inside the bar
Hollywood is waiting
Yes is waiting to explode

Everyone is waiting
Yes is waiting to explode
To explode

Hollywood is waiting
Yes is waiting to explode
Hollywood is waiting
Yes is waiting to explode
Hollywood is waiting
Yes is waiting to explode
To explode
Again
