

Pharao, Back Home Again

Back home again
In your arms back home again
Hey hey yo ma ma ma

Back home again (Back home again)
Back home again

I've seen the beauty and the ugly
I've seen the madness and reality
Now I'm coming back, (back home) I'm coming back

I've seen the high-life society
I've see the hungry on the streets
So I'm coming back, (back home) I'm coming back (Back home again)

I've seen the dark side of the moonlight
I've seen the wild ... after midnight
So I'm coming back, (back home) I'm coming back

I've seen the on the lion
I've seen the rainbow child
So I'm coming back, (back home) I'm coming back (Back home again)
