

Pharao, Dreams On Golden Wings

Dreams on golden wings
Dreams on golden wings
When the love goes on
It will be time for one
Wishing well from the bottom of my heart
Without you
I still love you
When I dream on golden wings

As I sit alone in my corner trying hard to remember your face
I cannot eat, I cannot breathe and I never wanna see again
I try to call you on the phone but my weakness just a me
How can I ever trust someone

Oh I never wanna fall in love again

Now I wonder what to do but I think I'm gonna make it
I wanna cry, I wanna fly but I'm sick of all my feelings
I try to call you on the phone but my weakness just a me
How can I ever trust someone
Oh I never wanna fall in love again
