

Phathom, Carrion

Remember betrayal scaring life?

Remember the cold sting of fear?

Remember deceiving waves of sound?

Rewinds and echoes in my ear

I'm mourning, My Warnings, I'm losing and fading contagious scaring

Are you just like me? Am I so safe in here? My wounds are deep and poisonous

Forgetting the pain that fractioned my heart undoing memories made from the start

Believing I'm someone I'm not

Tired of being what you want me to be

I'm mourning, my warnings, I'm losing and fading contagious scaring, are you to be just like me

I'm mourning, my warnings, I'm losing and fading contagious scaring, are you to be just like me

Am I so safe in here? My wounds are deep and poisonous

I betray you

In Blasphaminic ways I defy you

Through your heart I scathe unseen

Undone, Unblessed, Unraveled seams

Am I so safe in here? My wounds are deep and poisonous

I mourn and warn for your sake

My wounds are deep and poisonous
